

AGPD

What is the AGPD? The AEPD (Spanish Data Protection Agency) is a public entity with legal personality which acts independently of the public authorities in the exercise of their duties, under the protection of the Ley Orgánica 15/1999, of December 13, of protection of data of Personal character (LOPD) and Royal Decree 17202007, of 21 December, (RDLOPD).

The functions of the AEPD pass by reporting all rights, promoting campaigns, issue authorizations, require corrective action, order the cessation of treatment and cancellation of data, sanction in case of illegality, authorize data transfers in the field of security and control of access to the files.

Do you know if your company meets all requirements of the AEPD or if you're aware of the regulatory data protection?

Failure to comply with the LOPD data protection act can be a harsh penalty of the AGPD, by a fine of between 60,000€ to 600,000€.
